I. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS.
l. Last August asked the A&E Staff for help in determining the equivalence of several forms of the Informational Reading Test then in use in the Reading Techniques Course. It was decided to rebuild the existing forms and add	25X1
five others, making a total of eight. completed the last of these tests this week, with the assistance of Sufficient data is expected to be on hand by April to permit an initial testing of the equivalence of these forms. Once equivalence is established, studies can be made of the changes that take place—during and after training—in the effectiveness with which students scan reading material for its factual content.	25X1 25X1
